Individual Consortium Agreement-College of Law

University of North Texas students who plan to concurrently enroll at a host institution during a term may use this form to document course work and costs at the host institution. Under this agreement, UNTDCOL will act as the home institution (the institution administering financial aid and awarding your degree). UNTDCOL will disburse financial aid, monitor SAP, and report enrollment to the National Student Clearinghouse. Only the home institution may disburse financial aid for the term.

General Requirements and Notices:

- 1. The financial aid office at your host school must document your registration, tuition, & fee costs and sign this form.
- 2. You must be taking a minimum of 8 credit hours for the entire term to be eligible to receive and keep your financial aid. If you drop your courses your financial aid could be returned, creating a balance on your student account.
- 3. The Academic Dean must certify that the coursework at the host institution is applicable to your law degree at UNTDCOL (see Academic Dean Certification on page 2).
- 4. You must attach a copy of your registration or class schedule at the host school.
- 5. Courses taken at the host school will be treated the same as UNTDCOL courses for Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP). See https://finaid.untdallas.edu/satisfactory-academic-progress for more information regarding the policy.
- 6. You may submit an unofficial transcript from the host school at the end of the term to show progress. You must submit an official transcript from the host school at the end of summer term. We will hold financial aid for future terms until we receive the transcript.
- 7. If you drop all courses at both schools, UNTD financial aid department will perform a Return of Title IV Funds calculation and may return funds to federal accounts. This could result in a bill on your student account.
- 8. Financial aid will be disbursed according to the UNTDCOL disbursement schedule. Consortium agreements can cause a delay in disbursements, so plan accordingly.
- 9. You are responsible for paying tuition, fees, and other charges at the host school.
- 10. You understand and authorize UNTDCOL and the host school to share information about your educational records.
- 11. The UNTD Financial Aid Office can accept consortium agreement forms only through the second week of the term.
