

UNIVERSITY OF NORTH TEXAS AT DALLAS

NEW STUDENT ORIENTATION

Orientation Make-up Sessions Agreement Form

All new incoming students attending the University of North Texas at Dallas are required to attend New Student Orientation. As a result of me not attending/missing all of the scheduled summer orientation sessions, I, _____, understand that I must attend one of the spring Orientation make-up sessions that are scheduled during the start of the spring 2020 semester. An orientation hold will be placed on my account and it will NOT be removed until I attend and complete this university requirement. I understand that attending this session will act as my required new student Orientation session and I will be charged the associated orientation fee. The orientation make-up session dates are the following:

February 4th 5:30PM-7:00PM

February 12th 5:30PM-7:00PM

Once I have the attended a make-up session, my Orientation hold will be removed and my account will be charged the respective fee amount.

Failure to attend my Orientation make-up session will result in the Orientation hold preventing my registration for future terms. If I miss all the spring make-up dates, I will have to wait to attend fall 2020 Orientation in order to have my orientation hold removed.

By signing this document, I understand I am now obligated and in agreeance to the terms above. I know that if anything comes up, I will notify the Coordinator of New Student Orientation as soon as possible.
