Course Development and Instruction
Develop and deliver comprehensive curricula for foundational legal courses, including Legal Methods, Legal Skills & Analysis, and Bar Exam Skills & Strategies. Implement innovative pedagogical approaches to enhance student engagement and comprehension of complex legal concepts.

Bar Examination Preparation
Design and facilitate intensive bar-readiness workshops focusing on substantive review, essay writing techniques, and multiple-choice test strategies. Create targeted intervention programs to support students' bar examination preparation, incorporating both theoretical frameworks and practical applications.

Academic Success Initiative
Establish and maintain a comprehensive academic support program encompassing both individual consultations and group workshops. Cultivate an environment conducive to academic excellence through personalized learning strategies and analytical skill development. Provide specialized guidance in legal writing, case analysis, and exam preparation techniques.

Faculty Collaboration and Curriculum Integration
Foster cross-departmental partnerships to implement academic success strategies throughout the law school curriculum. Engage in regular consultation with faculty members to align academic support services with course objectives and learning outcomes. Develop integrated approaches to reinforce fundamental legal concepts across various courses.

RESEARCH INTEREST

Pedagogical Innovation through AI Integration
Investigating how AI tools can enhance traditional legal teaching methodologies while maintaining the rigorous analytical training essential to legal education. This includes examining the role of AI in developing students' legal reasoning skills and its potential to provide personalized learning experiences in doctrinal and skills-based courses.

Assessment and Academic Support
Studying the application of AI-powered analytics to identify and address student learning challenges in real-time, with emphasis on developing predictive models for academic success and bar passage. This research strand includes exploring how AI can help create adaptive learning pathways for diverse student populations.

OTHER ACADEMIC EXPERIENCE

Barbri, Inc., Bar Tutor, Dallas, TX, (December 2022 - Current)

I provide comprehensive individualized bar examination preparation support through intensive one-on-one tutoring sessions tailored to meet each candidate's unique learning needs. My approach combines detailed analysis of practice essays and performance tests with constructive feedback designed to enhance analytical writing skills and legal reasoning abilities, while developing customized study plans that account for individual learning styles, strengths, and areas requiring additional focus. Drawing on my expertise in bar examination preparation, I implement targeted test-taking strategies across all examination components, including multiple-choice questions, essays, and performance tests, while maintaining systematic documentation of student progress that allows for precise adjustments to study plans and teaching methods. Through continuous monitoring and adaptation of teaching strategies, I work collaboratively with students to strengthen their understanding of challenging legal concepts, improve their test-taking efficiency, and build the confidence necessary for success on the bar examination, maintaining detailed records of progress and focus areas throughout the preparation period.

Barbri, Inc., Bar Coach, Dallas, TX, (Summer 2023 and Summer 2024)

In my role as an Academic Support Specialist, I lead comprehensive bi-weekly strategy group sessions that deliver targeted exam preparation techniques to diverse student cohorts, addressing complex bar exam topics and study approaches through interactive discussions and practical applications. My responsibilities include managing a high-volume internal ticketing system for student inquiries, consistently maintaining a 24-hour response time for strategic questions while providing in-depth substantive legal analysis and feedback within a 48-hour window. Through targeted one-on-one coaching sessions, I offer specialized support for students seeking to enhance their essay writing skills, combining detailed analytical feedback with practical writing techniques. This individualized approach extends to personalized strategic consultations where I help students navigate complex study plan modifications and overcome specific exam preparation challenges, ensuring each student receives tailored guidance aligned with their learning needs and examination goals.
