

UNT Dallas Responds: Coping, Changing, Community & Growth

Coping: How to Channel Pain, Anger & Frustration into Promise

Questions submitted from the audience:

- What can we as students do to be a part of the initiatives that help our diversity environment succeed? We encourage students to reach out to Dr. Susan Harper as she handles Multicultural Programming and she can assist in getting them plugged into opportunities to develop multicultural programs. In addition, students can get involved in student organizations that focus on providing multicultural experiences for students.
Contact Info:
Susan.harper@untdallas.edu (Multicultural Programming) studentorganizations@untdallas.edu (Student Organizations)
- Does UNT Dallas have a black students' association? We currently do not have a black student association. If you are interested in starting a black student association please contact studentorganizations@untdallas.edu