Course Goals or Overview:
This course is designed as an overview of gender scholarship and will focus especially on key work in the last twenty years. The course will begin its overview with a central theoretical work in conceptualizing gender (e.g., “doing gender”). With this as a grounding assumption, we will closely examine various ways sociologists have conceptualized, theorized, and observed gender. We will also review two central developments in the area (e.g., intersections analyses and masculinities studies) and examine quite recent articles by leading scholars of these branches of gender scholarship. Finally, the course will also consider empirical work that links gender to institutions and social structures. In all, the course is meant to move students to a more comprehensive understanding of the gender in/as society by considering gender to be a social practice and not just biology.

Learning Objectives/Outcomes: At the end of this course, the student will be able to
1. Know the basic theories related to the study of gender
2. Outline the various perspectives relevant to gender studies (i.e., sociology, history) and used to analyze gender relations
3. Describe classic and contemporary scholarship on gender and attendant empirical research
4. Raise questions about continuing sexism, patriarchy, and homophobia in our society, and look at applied attempts to rectify racial distrust and alienation

Course Evaluation Methods

This course will utilize the following instruments to determine student grades and proficiency of the learning outcomes for the course.

Reading Reviews (20%, 10 points possible/review)

To facilitate discussion and understanding of material, you will be expected to write 10 reviews over the course of the semester. Reviews should be written as 1 page overviews of the review article of the day or class video. Each review should strive to identify the author(s)’ key points and provide critical reflection about the work (especially in relation to other reading and ideas from class). In addition, each review should include at least 1 class discussion question that will be offered during class. Please note that students may not choose to do a review for any articles or videos after the date for those items have passed.

Exams (80%)

There will be 4 exams. Each exam is worth a total of 50 points. Exams consist of multiple choice questions and essays.

University Policies and Procedures

Students with Disabilities (ADA Compliance):
The University of North Texas Dallas faculty is committed to complying with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA). Students' with documented disabilities are responsible for informing faculty of their needs for reasonable accommodations and providing written authorized documentation. Grades assigned before an accommodation is provided will not be changed as accommodations are not retroactive. For more information, you may visit the Student Life Office, Suite 200, Building 2 or call Laura Smith at 972-780-3632.

Student Evaluation of Teaching Effectiveness Policy:
The Student Evaluation of Teaching Effectiveness (SETE) is a requirement for all organized classes at UNT. This short survey will be made available to you at the end of the semester, providing you a chance to comment on how this class is taught. I am very interested in the feedback I get from students, as I work to continually improve my teaching. I consider the SETE to be an important part of your participation in this class.

Assignment Policy:
Any style guide may be used for research papers so long as the style is used consistently throughout the paper. Note: No extensions are given on any assignment, unless a legitimate excuse is received well before the due date. For illness or injury a doctor’s note is required. An unexcused late assignment will result in an automatic 10 point deduction and an additional 5 point deduction for each day after that.

Exam Policy:
Exams should be taken as scheduled. No makeup examinations will be allowed except for documented emergencies (See Student Handbook).

Academic Integrity:
Academic integrity is a hallmark of higher education. You are expected to abide by the University’s code of Academic Integrity policy. Any person suspected of academic dishonesty (i.e., cheating or plagiarism) will be handled in accordance with the University’s policies and procedures. Refer to the Student Code of Academic Integrity at http://www.unt.edu/unt-dallas/policies/Chapter%2007%20Student%20Affairs,%20Education,%20and%20Funding/7.002%20Code%20of%20Academic_Integrity.pdf for complete provisions of this code.

In addition, all academic work submitted for this class, including exams, papers, and written assignments should include the following statement:

On my honor, I have not given, nor received, nor witnessed any unauthorized assistance that violates the UNTD Academic Integrity Policy.
Bad Weather Policy:
On those days that present severe weather and driving conditions, a decision may be made to close the campus. In case of inclement weather, call UNT Dallas Campuses main voicemail number (972) 780-3600 or search postings on the campus website www.unt.edu/dallas. Students are encouraged to update their Eagle Alert contact information, so they will receive this information automatically.

Attendance and Participation Policy:
The University attendance policy is in effect for this course. Class attendance and participation is expected because the class is designed as a shared learning experience and because essential information not in the textbook will be discussed in class. The dynamic and intensive nature of this course makes it impossible for students to make-up or to receive credit for missed classes. Attendance and participation in all class meetings is essential to the integration of course material and your ability to demonstrate proficiency. Students are responsible to notify the instructor if they are missing class and for what reason. Students are also responsible to make up any work covered in class. It is recommended that each student coordinate with a student colleague to obtain a copy of the class notes, if they are absent.

To get the most out of this class your attendance is required.
• An attendance sign in sheet will be circulated at the beginning of each class. Sign your name in the sheet to document your attendance. Failure to sign the sheet will be considered an absence.
• Students are expected to attend all scheduled meetings of this class. Students are also expected to be on time for all scheduled class meetings. Students who come to class late will be counted as absent. After 3 absences, 5 overall points will be deducted for every class period missed.
• If you have a documented excuse for your absence let me know as soon as possible and bring it to class. A valid documented excuse consists of a doctor’s note documenting your illness or death in the family.
