It is the policy of the University of North Texas at Dallas to not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, age, national origin, disability (where reasonable accommodations can be made), disabled veteran status or veteran of the Vietnam era status in its educational programs, activities, admissions or employment policies. In addition to complying with federal and state equal opportunity laws and regulations, the university through its diversity policy declares harassment based on individual differences (including sexual orientation) inconsistent with its mission and educational goals.
Your education and personal success at UNT Dallas are our highest priorities. Therefore, UNT Dallas strives to offer the best education at an affordable cost.
